

1926-1929

AFSENDER

Johannes Larsen

MODTAGER

- Fleming

FAKTA

Dokumenttype:

Brev

Sprog:

dansk

Dateringsbegrundelse:

Brevet er udateret. Lehn Schiøler blev ramt af en hjerneblødning med delvis lammelse til følge i 1926 og døde i 1929.

Generel kommentar:

Det formodes, at der er tale om udkast til breve til dr. Murphy og dr. Fleming.

Det vides ikke, hvilken udstilling der er tale om.

Omtalte søn formodes at være

Andreas Larsen.

Ordet "speditor" findes ikke på engelsk. Det må formodes, at der er tale om et hjemmelavet ord for "speditør" fra Johannes Larsens side.

Omtalte personer:

Andreas Larsen

Eiler Lehn Schiøler

Helga Lehn Schiøler

Dr. Murphy

Arkivplacering:

Det Kongelige Bibliotek

Proveniens:

Indleveret til Det Kongelige Bibliotek af Larsen-familien

DOKUMENTINDHOLD

Johannes Larsen glæder sig over, at billeder er nået frem til en udstilling, formodentlig i England.

Han fortæller også om et sygebesøg hos Lehn Schiøler.

TRANSSKRIFTION

[1]

My dear Dr. Fleming

As I was in Sweden [the time er overstreget] when my pictures] should be send, my Son did it for me, but he send the Prospect with your Adr to the Speditor in Copenhagen, and so I could not write to you. I learned from Dr. Murphy that the pictures did come in time to be hung [ulæselig] in the catalog. I enclose [ulæselig] a letter to Dr. Murphy and hope he will forward it to you. I thank you very much and send you some handprints from the woodcut in Danmarks Fugle. Will you kindly let me know at which time I can expect my pictures back. I am going to exhibit them in Copenhagen in the spring

[2]

As I was not sure that my pictures had come in time to be hung in [ulæselig] I was much pleased to learn from your kindly letter that they [was er overstreget] were

[uafsluttet]

My dear Dr. Murphy

As I did not return from Sweden in time to send my pictures maybe I was not sure that they had come in time to be hung [ulæselig] So I was much pleased to hear from your letter that they was. I think it rather kindly of you to let me know.

How is [ulæselig] I am sorry to tell you that Mr. Schiøler is but very little better and at this time only his wife is allowed to see him. On my return home from Sweden I was with Mrs. Schiøler to see him, but I am not sure, that he did recognise me

[uafsluttet]